

Have you received a suspicious call, text, or email? Just ask yourself:

Is it urgent?

Are they trying to rush me, scare me, or pressure me into acting quickly?

Is it plausible?

Does the story make sense? Would my bank call and ask for my PIN?

Do I know this person?

Have I interacted with this sender/caller before? Does something feel off?

When in doubt, don't!

This tip was provided by Mike Wade; Community Banker and Author of "The Anti-Hacker's Handbook: Your Digital Survival Guide"