

SCARY CYBERSECURITY FACTS

68% of business leaders feel their cybersecurity risks are increasing.

The top malicious email attachment types are .doc and .dot which make up 37%, the next highest is .exe at 19.5%.

71% of breaches were financially motivated and 25% were motivated by espionage.

By 2020, the estimated number of passwords used by humans and machines worldwide will grow to 300 billion.

Hackers attack every 39 seconds, on average 2,244 times a day.

Data breaches exposed 4.1 billion records in the first half of 2019.

Only 5% of companies' folders are properly protected, on average.

